

THE GENESIS OF THE IDEA OF SYSTEM IN GERMANY

Workshop organized jointly by the Canadian Research Chair in Transcendental Philosophy and the Chaire Ésope

November 3rd, 2016

PROGRAM

8h30-9h00	Welcome
9h00-10h00	Christian Leduc (Université de Montréal) Is there a system in Leibniz?
10h00-11h00	Nigel DeSouza (University of Ottawa) Herder and Schulphilosophie
11h00-11h30	Break
11h30-12h30	Karin de Boer (KU Leuven) Kant's notion of a metaphysical system
12h30-14h00	Lunch
14h00-15h00	Adam Westra (Université de Montréal) 'Supersensible nature': natural and moral systematicity in the second Critique
15h00-16h00	Gesa Wellmann (KU Leuven) On the necessity of a foundation - Reinhold's interpretation of Kant's system of pure reason
16h00-16h30	Break
16h30-17h30	Angelica Nuzzo (City University of New York) The Form of Philosophy: System and Method in Kant, Fichte, and Hegel

Contact: Augustin Dumont (augustin.dumont@umontreal.ca)
Christian Leduc (christian.leduc.1@umontreal.ca)